

The CHAOTIC EARTH GAME

A 'Chaos Theory' joke/philosophy by Nick Ray Ball October 2011

What if God were board?

Energy, the universe and what most refer to as God are all intertwined in my mind, it does however help in telling stories to simplify "Energy, the Universe & God" to simply "God", so I will.

When I think of God I imagine a large entity, made of many parts.

What if Gods greatest creation was called "The Chaotic Earth Game" here the parts of God could travel and experience a lifetime, either because they were bored or to better aid their development.

The catch, of course, was that as soon as the particles of God were born, they had no idea they were playing the game.

One could choose their own time and try themselves out as a caveman, a 21st Century human, a dinosaur, or just take a vacation as a cat or a plant, if say, the chemical make-up of a cat or plant made them permanently happy. (Just something I've been pondering)

At the end of the journey, one could assess, there may even be a score. If one did well, applause from the rest of God, if one did badly, no one notices, it is after all just a game.

I ponder what God's reaction would be, to my discovering S-World and my desire to create a fairer world. If implemented would I have a huge score and be applauded, as I had done something significant in the universe, had I even added to Gods plan?

Or would every part of God, just look at me with disappointment and say "you idiot", "you broke the game!"

First, put online as Chapter 20 of 'The Spartan Theory'
